Rhonda and Mike Kleinke have been longtime residents of Wadena. Rhonda has been employed locally with Super One Foods for 29 years. Mike, a retired Military Veteran of 26 years, and volunteer at the Wadena Fire Department is also employed locally. Rhonda and Mike have three children: Brittani (Tyler), Brayden (Mya) and Bryanna. One grandson, Bentley.

Rhonda struggled with health issues for two years before an exploratory surgery in St. Cloud found a Neuroendocrine tumor in her small bowel. Rhonda was diagnosed with Neuroendocrine Carcinoid Stage 4 cancer on June 24th, 2021 and it has spread throughout her body. She was sent to Mayo in Rochester where she has received infusions every 28 days since September of 2021. She has recently completed 4 radiation infusion treatments and is now waiting to hear what the next steps will be. This is just the beginning of Rhonda's journey as her diagnosis is INCURABLE. She will need continued treatments at Mayo to maintain the best possible quality of life.
